

Mid-term Review Meeting on Improving water use for dry season agriculture by marginal and tenant farmers in the Eastern Gangetic Plains

A mid-term review meeting of ACIAR funded project was held from 26th – 29th Sept, 2016 at ICAR RCER, Patna to review the progress and future action to be taken for the project titled “Improving water use for dry season agriculture by marginal and tenant farmers in the Eastern Gangetic Plains. The meeting was attended by the members of ACIAR, University of Queensland, Australia, CSIRO, Australia, IWMI, Nepal, BRRI, Bangladesh, Dept. of Irrigation, Nepal, International Developmental Enterprises (IDE), Nepal, Groundwater Resource Development Board, Nepal, UBKV, West Bengal, CDHI, West Bengal, SAKHI, Bihar, Director, Heads and project associated scientists of the institute.

In the four days meeting, progress, problems faced, risks, key success and challenges and activity planning for the next year of all the partners of respective regions were discussed thoroughly not only in the field of bio physical area but social issues related with the interventions too.