

Dr. Rakesh Kumar Honoured with Indian Society of Agronomy Fellow Award 2024

Dr. Rakesh Kumar, Senior Scientist, Division of Crop Research, ICAR-Research Complex for Eastern Region, Patna has been honoured with the prestigious Indian Society of Agronomy Fellow Award 2024 during the 6th International Agronomy Congress held at ICAR–NPL, New Delhi from 24-26 November, 2025. He has immensely contributed in the field of rice fallow management, crop diversification, promotion of millet crops, popularization of climate resilient agriculture technologies, weed management and other areas of agronomic research.

Expressing his gratitude on receiving this distinguished recognition, Dr. Kumar conveyed his sincere thanks to all his mentors, seniors and colleagues for their constant support, guidance and encouragement, which helped him achieve this milestone.

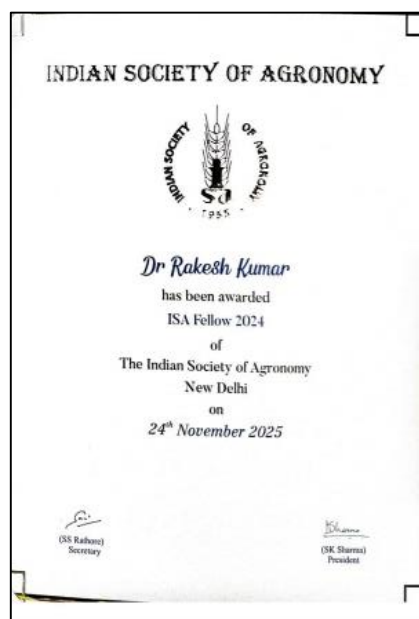

Fig. Dr Rakesh Kumar, Sr. Scientist (Agronomy) received prestigious Indian Society of Agronomy Fellow Award 2024